Election/Restrictions

Claims in the application are 1-10.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

5 I. Claims 1-8 and 10, drawn to a spinning disk encapsulation apparatus for encapsulating biological material, classified in class 435, subclass 283.1.

 II. Claim 9, drawn to a batch of double layer capsules containing biological material produced by a process 10 involving atomizing and gelling a first polymeric suspension, applying an electrostatic charge to a liquid carrier medium to form a second polymeric suspension, and atomizing and gelling the second polymeric suspension, classified in class 435, subclass 182.

15 The inventions are independent or distinct, each from the other because:

 Inventions I and II are related as apparatus and product made.
The inventions in this relationship are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the apparatus as claimed is not 20 an obvious apparatus for making the product and the apparatus can be used for making a materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different apparatus (MPEP § 806.05(g)). In this case, the apparatus is not an obvious apparatus for making the product and the apparatus can be used for 25 making a materially different product. For example, the apparatus can be used to encapsulate material other than biological material and can be used to form a single layer capsule instead of a double layer capsule. Furthermore, the product can be made with a materially different apparatus. For example, the double layer capsules can be produced without a spinning disk such as by forming droplets using a syringe type device. Examining inventions I and II together will be a serious burden due to different searches and considerations in regard to applying prior art.

Art Unit: 1651

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

5 Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a 10 request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
